Have you ever heard?

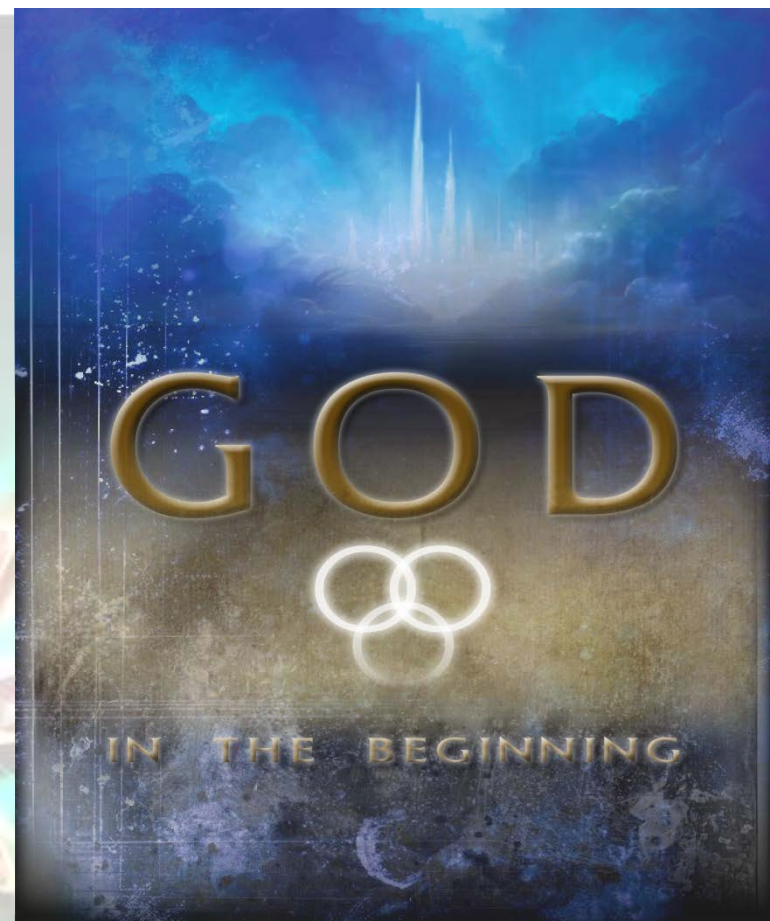

"Well, you just think your right and everyone else is wrong."

"your belief is so narrow and exclusive."

this is sloppy and dishonest thinking...

Reality is Exclusive

what ever you believe (behave & act) you believe it to be the best, correct thing to believe, otherwise you wouldn't believe it.
It excludes other beliefs.

There is no human vacuum of belief. A belief in nothing is still a belief, and one can not have a belief in everything, because of contradiction. All beliefs are exclusive, because choices and reality are exclusive.

The problem is not naturalism

the problem is our perception of reality (our absolute belief that the only “real” is subject to our perceptions could it be that we are limited and have lost the ability to perceive and observe all of reality

our sciences propose 10-12 dimensions,
4 of which we consider material

The Twelve Dimensions of Creation

the Alpha and Omega & the nature of reality & science

If God exists, then there is no truly isolated system.

God is not restricted by the universe/nature He created

– Dr. Jonathan Sarfati

God is not just “love”

he is Relationship

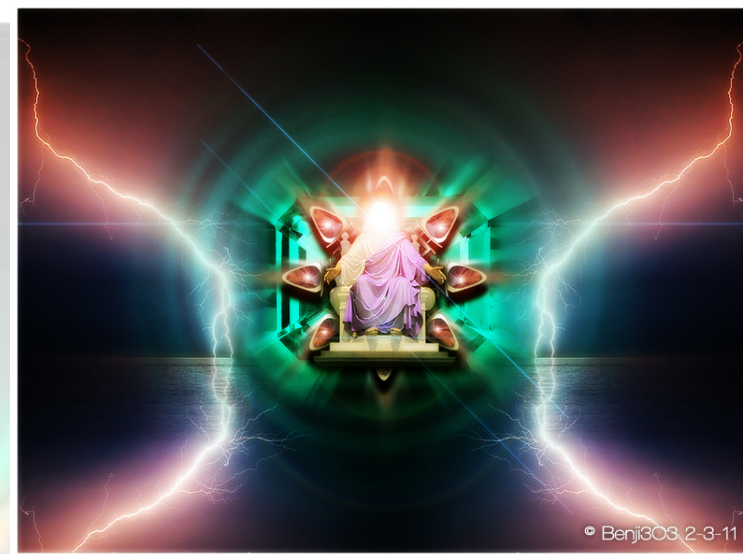

(Justice, judgment, kindness, jealousy, goodness ...)

Evidence & Relationship

Why doesn't God just show up and fix all this, if He is real?

Put down the detractors and expose the truth?

Evidence / presence doesn't create relationship. For example: Eden & Israel

Monotheism Test

Common Hebrew terms for God:

- elohim (ca. 2700)
- el (238)
- YHWH (ca. 6800)
- eloah (57)

Q1: Is there more than one elohim that is real / exists?

Q2: Are you a monotheist?

Elohim not Equal in Attributes

◎ The term elohim is used to describe:

- The God of Israel
- The gods of the nations (1 Kg 11:33)
- The gods of Yahweh's council (Psa 82:1)
- Demons (Deut 32:17)
 - (= gods of the nations;
Deut 32:8-9; 17:3)
- Deceased human dead (1 Sam 28:13)
- Angels (? – Gen 32:1-2; 35:7)

YHWH is an elohim, but no other elohim = YHWH

elohim = place of residence

The supernatural Worldview of the ancient Israelites

The word divine will = Supernatural being

To This Point

- ⦿ Biblical use of the word elohim shows us it is not tied to a set of attributes.
- ⦿ Explains why more than one thing can be described with elohim.
- ⦿ English translations at time obscure the meaning and theology of the biblical writers.
- ⦿ Since elohim is not about attributes, the biblical writers were not denying monotheism by using that word to describe other figures they believed to exist.
 - ⦿ For Jews: Divine plurality language is not a threat to monotheism

With Respect to Judaism

- ⦿ The Shema is not in contradiction to the divine plurality of the Hebrew Bible.
- ⦿ The Shema affirms the uniqueness of Yahweh, a uniqueness that operates alongside divine plurality.
- ⦿ Therefore divine plurality is not inconsistent with monotheism when the word elohim is properly understood.
- ⦿ Paves the way for the next step to explaining how Christianity grew out of Judaism but still embraced Israel's God:

The OT identifies another elohim with YHWH's own essence, (i.e., as Yahweh) while still being distinct from YHWH.

With Respect to Skeptical Scholars

- ⦿ Since Israelite divine plurality (as we'll see) has a godhead as one of its features, it is an error to think that the NT idea of a godhead is contrived.
- ⦿ Contrary to what liberal and atheistic scholars like B. Ehrman and M. Borg want to say, Paul didn't make up the deity of Christ in contradiction to the first Christians.

Beliefs that would make us Gods are ruled out - Mormonism

With Respect to Other Faiths

- ⦿ Israel's divine plurality (i.e., use of elohim as a term) shows that all elohim were not alike.
- ⦿ The Shema affirms the uniqueness of Yahweh, a uniqueness that operates alongside divine plurality.
- ⦿ (As we'll see) the elohim who "is but isn't Yahweh" is identified with Jesus in the NT, and so Jesus is not a created, lesser divinity.

The Divine Council

an ancient concept

The Council of God
Vision of St John the Evangelist
Unknown German Master

The Bible and its Story--1909 the glory of the lamb

"[The divine council is] the heavenly host, the pantheon of divine beings who administer the affairs of the cosmos. All ancient Mediterranean cultures had some conception of a divine council. The divine council of Israelite religion, known primarily through the psalms, was distinct in important ways." Michael S. Heiser, Dictionary of the Old Testament: Wisdom, Poetry, & Writings; ed. Mike Heiser is a scholar in the fields of biblical studies and the ancient Near East. He is the Academic Editor of Losses Bible Software. Mike earned the M.A. and Ph.D. in Hebrew Bible and Semitic Languages at the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 2004. He has also earned an M.A. in Ancient History from the University of Pennsylvania (major fields: Ancient Israel and Egyptology).

Mike's main research interests are Israelite religion (especially Israel's divine council), biblical theology, ancient Near Eastern religion, biblical & ancient Semitic languages, and ancient Jewish Christian monotheism. He maintains three blogs: The Naked Bible (biblical studies), PaleoBabble (weird beliefs about antiquity), and UFO Religions (how belief in ET's intersects with religion). He teaches ancient languages online at MEMRA. For more information, see his FAQ and CV.

The Façade: Special Edition

Mike is also well known as the author of his supernatural thriller, The Façade. Mike blends academic biblical scholarship and his knowledge of the ancient world, alternative spiritualities, and the paranormal in The Façade to create an enthralling read.

As readers of The Façade already know, one of its plotlines concerns how a genuine ET reality would affect the traditional Judeo-Christian faith and worldview. Another utilizes Mike's academic specialty, the divine council, when the story's characters are confronted with a different question: what if what everyone thought was extraterrestrial is something else much more sinister.

Materialist

- ▶ Agnostic or atheist
- ▶ SETI (yes to ET life; no to UFOs)

Theosophical

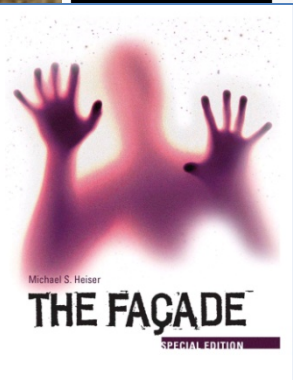

- ▶ occult & esoteric traditions and motifs
- ▶ UFOs are spiritual entities; aliens are spirit guides; shamanistic

These are the two views that dominate the current culture, which is a combination of materialist and materialist-"paganized"; appear at odds but are not.

Theosophical traditions operate from an "all is one" worldview (monism), not theistic dualism (all is not one: there is God and there is everything else, which was made by God)

The two will be united (and really already are, save for the "empirical gap") when "spirituality" is shown to be entirely natural / material.

Revelation of an advanced, intelligent ET will be the catalyst. Will also bring the physicalists under the one umbrella, ASSUMING the ETs claim to be the gods of old.

Fascinating descent to lost aircrafts' deep icy tomb ...

The P-38 Lightning was one of the deadliest planes to come out of WWII. Powered by twin 1200-hp Allison V-12 engines, it had one 20mm cannon and four .50 calibre machine guns in its nose. Operational from 1941-46, the nickname given to it by German pilots, on account of its double tail, was Der Gabelschwanz Teufel (the fork-tailed devil). They are a highly prized collector's item; only five were believed to still be flying at the time that the Lost Squadron P-38 was salvaged — under c. 75 metres (250 feet) of solid ice!

“Very simply. Radiocarbon dating doesn't work well on objects much older than twenty thousand years”

“However, the amount of C-14 has not been rising steadily as Cook maintains; instead, it has fluctuated up and down over the past ten thousand years. How do we know this? From radiocarbon dates taken from bristlecone pines.”

Radioactive decay dating

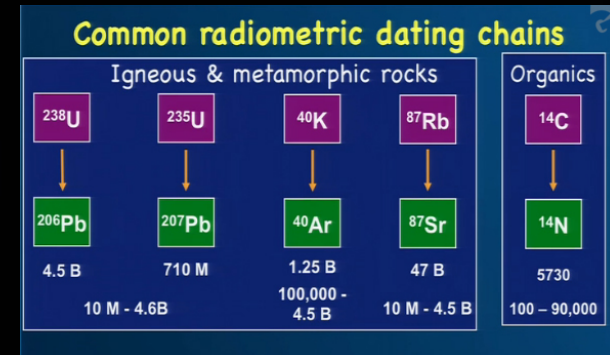

Dating Methods: Rocks and Fossils

To derive ages from such measurements, un-provable assumptions have to be made such as:

The starting conditions are known (for example, that there was no daughter isotope present at the start, or that we know how much was there).

Decay rates have always been constant.

Systems were closed or isolated so that no parent or daughter isotopes were lost or added.

Dating Methods Summarized

Many major assumptions – most of which are not stated in giving “factual / know dates”

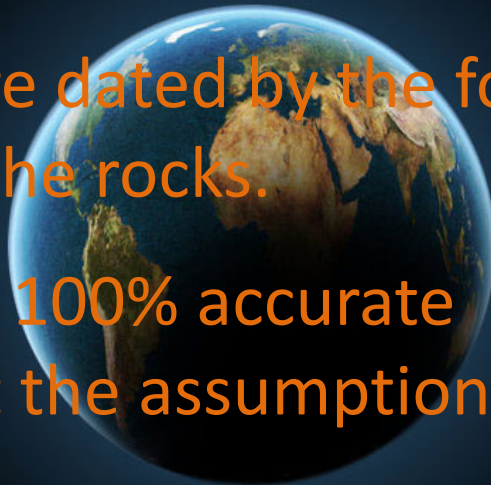

know errors

Fossils – the rocks are dated by the fossils, and the fossils are dated by the rocks.

No dating method is 100% accurate lets be honest about the assumptions

lets keep refining dating methods – but understand their limited ability – and tied to naturalistic processes.

Millions & Billions of years can not be soundly proved by dating methods due to assumptions and alternate theories

*What are the issues? Why learn about origins?
What does it matter and who cares?*

The Garden of Eden is a "myth," i.e., a historical tale embodying spiritual truth. From the viewpoint of anthropology it is exceedingly unlikely that there was a First Man and Woman. Yet the "myth" contains great truths....

Human beings are the result of evolution, and shaped by natural selection. Self-centeredness and aggression were essential at every stage of evolution. Human beings naturally inherit this self-centeredness ("original sin") and without it babies could not survive...

... The cross is not the Son standing in my place to take the punishment that I ought to have. Such a view is immoral. In any case, no one person could suffer the whole world's punishments....

These resurrection appearances are not unlike paranormal experiences sometimes called "veridical hallucinations" which can take place shortly after the death of a loved one...

Should we take Genesis Literally?

If Genesis is not real literal history (Real) with a literal very good creation and with a literal Adam and Eve

then sin did not literally enter the world through their actions, and therefore you and I don't literally need to be saved.

Adam & Eve – Our Story

“The Curse” - Promise of Restoration?

Romans 8:18 For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us. ¹⁹ For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the sons of God. ²⁰ For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of him who subjected it, in hope ²¹ that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to corruption and obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. ²² For we know that the whole creation has been groaning together in the pains of childbirth until now. ²³ And not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies. ²⁴ For in this hope we were saved.

The Christian hope of Restoration is founded in the original “good” creation.

A restoration to a diseased, suffering, death, broken evolutionary planet of theistic ev.
would kind of suck.

Initial assumptions

- Eye witness records
- Divine Inspiration to Moses
- Reactive Theology (theological messaging)

“Don’t criticize Genesis for being what it is not”

God worked in and through the ancient writers – Israel – Moses, etc. as they culturally were. He did not change Israel’s worldview “scientific thinking” so He could dispense revelation to them. Genesis & Creation -MS Heiser

The following lists the authors and account transitions as proposed by Curt Sewell:

Genesis 2:4-5 - God to Adam

Genesis 5:1 - Adam to Noah

Genesis 6:9 - Noah to Shem, Ham, and Japheth

Genesis 10:1 - Shem, Ham, and Japheth to Shem

Genesis 11:10 - Shem to Terah

Genesis 11:27 - Terah to Isaac

Genesis 25:12 - Isaac to Ishmael, through Isaac

Genesis 25:19 - Isaac to Jacob

Genesis 36:1 - Jacob to Esau, through Jacob

Genesis 37:2 - Jacob to Jacob's sons

The "tablets," if written in this proposed time frame, would have been written in the language of the time and passed down from generation to generation. These were later all translated into Hebrew, granted that Hebrew was not the language of the antediluvian world. The tablets would likely have been separate pieces, and when put together in one account, possibly on papyrus or parchment, portions of certain colophons may have been dropped for lack of necessity, while the text itself was kept unchanged. There is clear textual evidence that Moses, when he compiled the accounts, put notes on updated place names after the original, out of date names. An example is in Genesis 23:19 :

THE MOUNTAIN OF GOD

Isaiah 14:4-15

4 you shall recite this song of scorn over the king of Babylon: How is the taskmaster vanished, How is oppression ended! ² The LORD has broken the staff of the wicked, The rod of tyrants, ³ That smote peoples in wrath With stroke unceasing, That belabored nations in fury in relentless pursuit, ⁴ All the earth is calm, untroubled: Loudly it cheers, ⁵ Even pines rejoice at your fate, And cedars of Lebanon: "Now that you have lain down, None shall come up to fell us," ⁶ Sheol below was astir To greet your coming — Rousing for you the Rephaim Of all earth's chieftains, Raising from their thrones All the kings (mlkm) of nations, ⁷ All speak up and say to you, "So you have been stricken as we were, You have become like us! ⁸ Your pomp is brought down to Sheol, And the strains of your lute! Worms are to be your bed, Maggots your blanket!" ⁹ How are you fallen from heaven, O Shining One, son of Dawn! How are you cast down to earth, O vanquisher of nations! ¹⁰ Once you thought in your heart, "I will mount the heavens; Higher than the stars of God I will set my throne, I will sit in the mount of assembly, On the summit of Zaphon; ¹¹ I will mount the back of a cloud — I will match the Most High," ¹² Instead, you are brought down to Sheol, To the bottom of the Pit.

I will sit on the mount of assembly

PYRAMIDS OF CHINA

PYRAMID FOUND IN EUROPE

Archaeologists have found cut stone slabs they believe form an ancient pyramid underneath a huge Bosnian hill. Satellite photographs and thermal imaging revealed two smaller pyramid-shaped hills in the Visoko Valley.

How pyramids may look

Resemble those found in Latin and South America

Pyramid of Sun (highest)

Pyramid of Moon

Location

Pyramid of Earth

Size comparison (height)

Pyramid of Sun (Bosnia) 722 ft.

Pyramid of Sun (Mexico) 210 ft.

Great Pyramid (Egypt) 450 ft.

Characteristics

Geometrically shaped: Very linear sides, with clearly defined edges (appear unnatural)

Flattened top (like Latin and South American pyramids) paved with stone slabs

Thermal satellite images show hills cool off more quickly than others in the area: Pyramid material absorbs less heat than soil, hills contain hollow areas

Huge polished stone blocks, cut in cubes and placed on top of each other found beneath soil matrix: 29.6 centimeters (11.7 in)

Location: Huludao City, Liaoning Province

Formation: Jiufotang Formation

Period: Lower Cretaceous

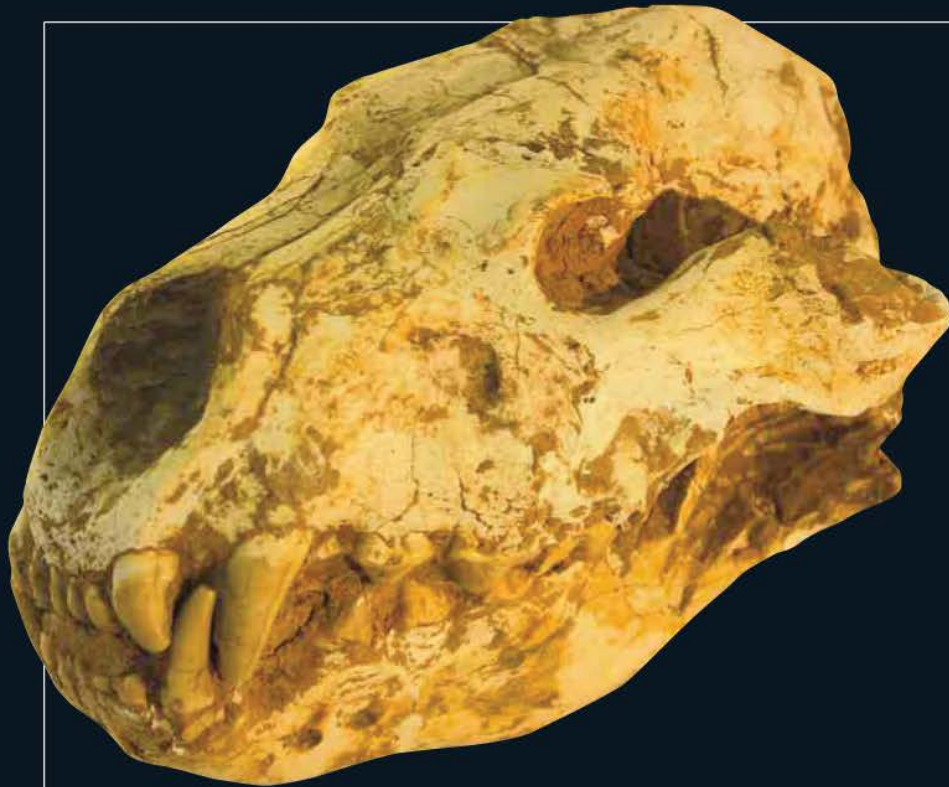

This fossil salamander uncovered in China is the world's oldest known salamander. As a result of some sudden volcanic eruption, fossil remains are often very well preserved under a layer of ash, so well that it is even possible to detect some of their soft tissues and the last food they ate.

These fossil salamanders are no different from those alive in our day. Amphibians that remain unchanged for hundreds of millions of years once again demonstrate that evolutionists are wrong.

GRIZZLY BEAR SKULL

Age: 89 million years old

Period: Cretaceous

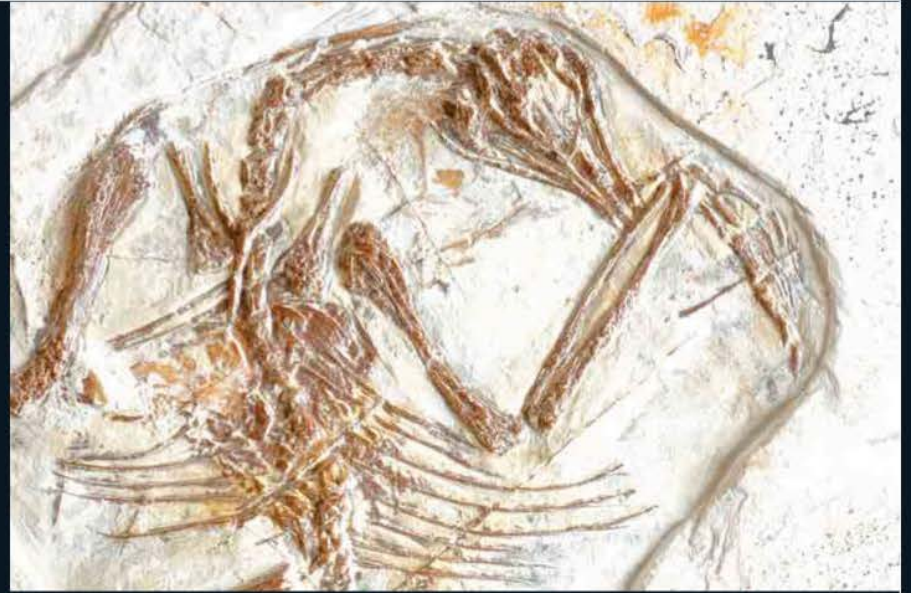

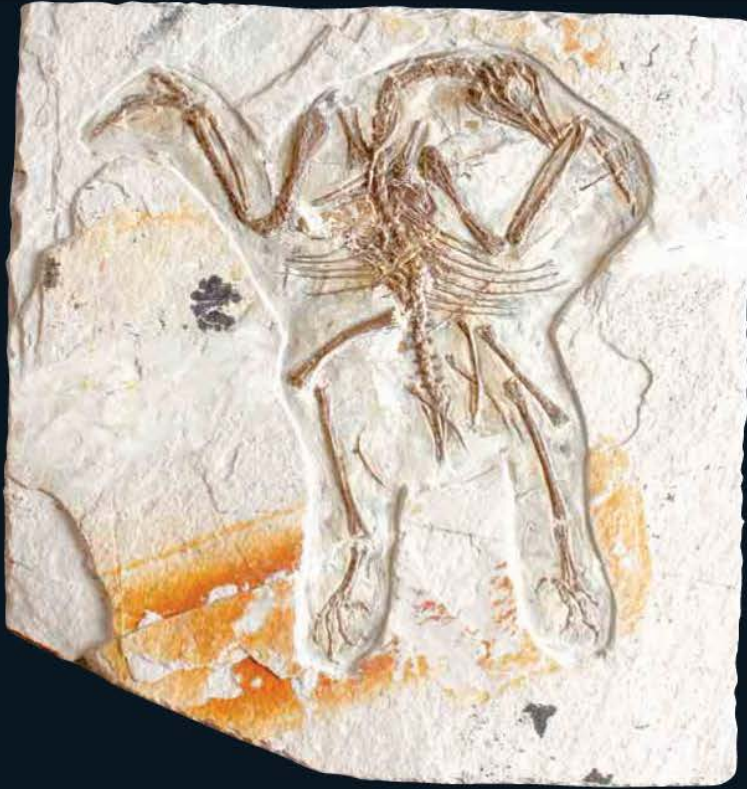

Location: China

All organisms appear in the fossil record in perfect form, complete in all aspects, with no intermediate or missing organs or structures. There are no half-formed nor missing features in their skulls, vertebrae or limbs. While no findings show that grizzly bears were descended from or transformed into some other life form, numerous fossil specimens reveal how they always existed as grizzly bears. One such example is the 89-million-year-old skull pictured here.

Bird

Various fossil birds found in China are among the evidence showing that birds have always been birds and that they did not evolve from any other creature. Darwinists claim that birds evolved from reptiles, but they lack any evidence to prove this claim. All fossil specimens gathered over the past 150 years show that evolutionists' claims are entirely groundless. The 140-million-year-old fossil bird pictured once again proves this fact.

TIGER SKULL

79 MYO_{ev}

Age: 79 million years old

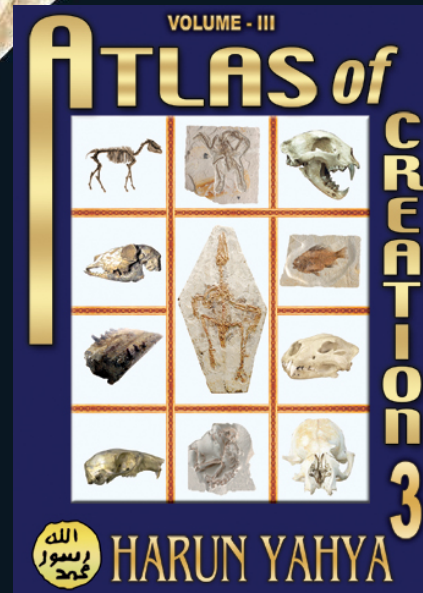

Period: Cretaceous

Location: China

No tiger ever thought to itself one day, "Why should I be like this? Why not begin doing so by altering its skeletal structure."

As the 79-million-year-old fossil pictured here reveals, tigers never underwent any process of change. This applies to all living things. Every species has remained identical with its own particular features and remained the same for as long as it has existed. Either the ideas that living species are in a constant state of change, that they developed from the primitive to the more complex, and that they descended from one another—all are simply figments of the imagination, supported by no scientific findings at all.

changes have happened in the head structures of tens of thousands of living species over millions of years, no evolutionary change occurred in the skulls of men. Just as fish have always remained as fish, birds have always remained as birds and reptiles remained as reptiles, so men always remained as men. No organ or structure of any living being have "evolved" from the primitive to more advanced forms, as evolutionists continually suggest.

While evolutionists talk about the so-called evolution of man, they make their own evolutionary arrangement and family tree, presenting the volumes, eyebrow projection or forehead structures of the skulls they unearth as evidence. But these structural differences are by no means any evidence for evolution, for some of these skulls belong to different races of men who lived in the past, whereas others belong to some extinct species of ape. It is utterly natural that different human races

Some races living today, like the native to the side, have the large eyebrow projections and the foreheads that are inclined backwards—features peculiar to Homo erectus skulls.

DISPARITIES BETWEEN THE SKULLS OF HUMAN RACES

It is perfectly natural that a Japanese has a different skull than a black man, an Inuit or a German. These disparities do not presuppose that any race is more developed or less progressed than any other and can never count as evolutionary evidence. These differences simply reflect the diversity and supremacy of God's creations.

It appears that the human stepped on the theropod track and not the reverse. Notice the clear lateral margin of the heal & arch compression on top of the mud up-push of the theropod track (arrows).

One possible explanation.

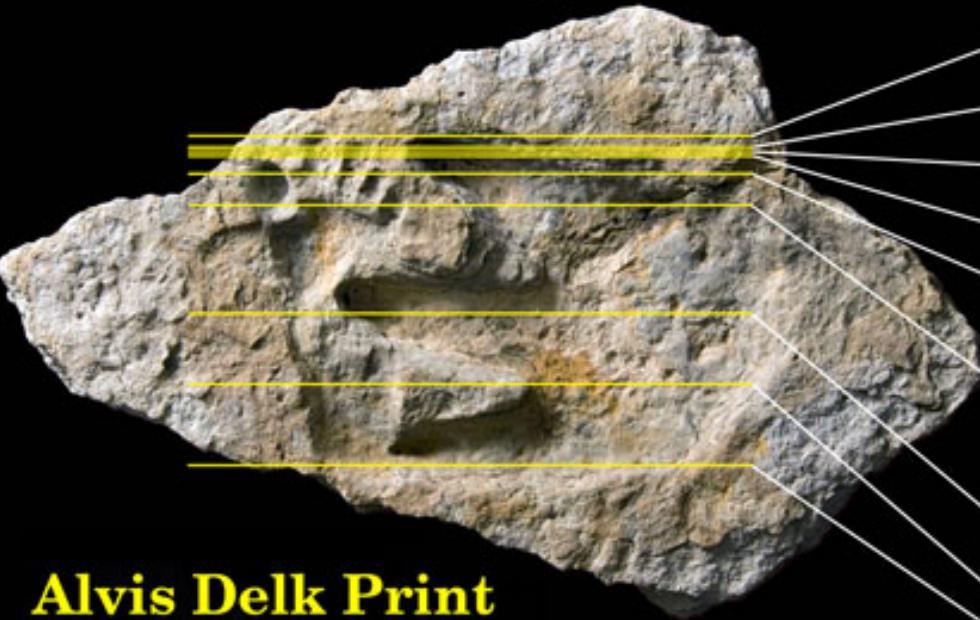

- (1) The human's heal appears to have obliterated the tip of the first theropod toe.
- (2) The lateral arch slightly compressed the mud up-push of the center toe, in part due to less pressure under the arch of the foot (see charts above).
- (3) If the foot rolled over the up-push, as it appears it did, it could explain the deep impression made by the medial ball and great toe.

Selected CT Scan Images

Lighter shades in the scan images indicate the highest density (more concentrated) rock. Varying shades of gray indicate variations in the density.

Because mud is a fluid, the pressure of a foot displaces the mud in a complex pattern. This introduces uneven pressures, and leaves areas of uneven density.

Relatively undisturbed mud at the ends of the rock exhibit a uniform light-gray color.

47 inch Human Femur

In the late 1950s, during road construction in south-east Turkey in the Euphrates Valley, many tombs containing the remains of Giants were uncovered.

At two sites the leg bones were measured to be about 120 cms "47.24 inches". Joe Taylor, Director of the Mt. BLANCO FOSSIL MUSEUM in Crosbyton, Texas, was commissioned to sculpt this anatomically correct, and to scale, human femur.

This "Giant" stood some 14-16 feet tall, and had 20-22 inch long feet. His or Her finger tips, with arms to their sides, would be about 6 feet above the ground.

The Biblical record, in Deuteronomy 3:11 states that the Iron Bed of Og, King of Bashan was 9 cubits by 4 cubits or approximately 14 feet long by 6 feet wide!

Maximinus was probably the biggest man ever to hold the office of Roman emperor. The Historia Augusta has it that he was 8 ft 6 in (2.6 m) tall, and so strong that he could pull laden carts unaided! The size of his footwear was also legendary, and the expression 'Maximinus's boot' came to be used in popular parlance for any tall or lanky individual. Surviving portrait busts, such as this one from the Louvre, show Maximinus as a heavily-muscled man with powerful jaw and close-cropped hair, the image of a seasoned soldier. Not for him the meditative, spiritual pose favoured by Alexander Severus.

A Function- transmitted from Adam to offspring makes humans (man & woman) distinct from animals -unique we share in his personhood equally (full possession- not partial) something shared with God's own being and nature intelligence, rationality, emotions, God knowledge, soul, free will, morality, communication

these can be said to not be present in all humans = or unique- they fail, linked to brain (personhood – sanctity of human life [a combination of the material and immaterial])

What is God's PURPOSE for our lives?

Does our existence end at death,
or does God have a plan
beyond the grave for all humans to reach their ultimate eternal DESTINY?

The Garden & the Choice: God's plan for humanity

God Creates humanity as his imagers – to be sons of God

The Shining One (advisary) seduces A&E to usurp God's plan - a shortcut – Divine knowledge, position (sons of God- council rulers), & Authority - We declare our own reality- good & evil (the illusion of independence -rebellion)

God's Curse & warning The divine supernatural "war" comes to earth "the seed" (any being who acts in agreement with the nachash's purpose. Is 14:29) (Nachash vs. Godly Humanity) broken relationship = broken identity / world

Supernaturals / watchers/ sons of God
procreate Nephilim

Pollution & destruction of humanity –
Adam's line

Global Judgment & Rescue: Flood Cataclysm

New family, new start - Noah

Nations seek other "gods" - Babel – 園
Dispersion & Recreating the Mt. of God

God disinherits the nations (70) and sets them under the sons of God

The Garden & the Choice: God's plan for humanity

God chooses Abraham / Israel as his nation apart

Fallen ones seek to destroy God's chosen

(Sodom & Gomorrah, Abraham's battles)

Famine and drought – to Egypt / slavery – slaughter of the first born

God's rescue of Israel & journey to the Promised Land

War with “nephilim/giant” nations/ peoples – eradication through Joshua, Judges, and

Kings 1 Chronicles 20 - King David

The Garden & the Choice: God's plan for humanity

Israel taken captive and dispersed

Promise of messiah Galatians 3:19

Messiah's birth - Herod's massacre -
Crucifixion – Resurrection

Jesus reclaims the disinherited nations

The Church – persecution - infiltration

Global Judgment and restoration as sons of God

What is God after, What does he want?

Beings who of their own free will chose to abide in Him finding their life, identity and source in Him.

Beings who have been inoculated against the illusions of self life, self-fulfillment, self-knowledge, and self-identity. who know that to chose their own path is death and destruction.

Those who have been conformed into His image through testing, pain and suffering - a refining of character and identity. "You have the words of eternal Life"... Jn 6:68

What is God after, What does he want?

He wants to expand his family, to share the love and life (relationship) He has within Himself (the Godhead) so that we may be called children (sons and daughters of God) created/conditional immortality- not Mormonism

Romans 8:18 For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us. ¹⁹ For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the sons of God. ²⁰ For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of him who subjected it, in hope ²¹ that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to corruption and obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. ²² For we know that the whole creation has been groaning together in the pains of childbirth until now. ²³ And not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies. ²⁴ For in this hope we were saved.

- God's council / family has suffered defections in the past.
(Free will- choice – love relationship)
- Some of these fallen sons of God are imprisoned, other are not.
- God has always wanted humanity to be part of this divine council-family, but the fall interfered with this.
- After the Babel rebellion, God gives the nations over to their self-willed desire to NOT follow him; as punishment the nations are “allotted” to lesser corrupt elohim (gods).
- God then raises up a new family ex nihilo – Abraham / Israel
- The Church inherits the status of and promises to Israel – in Jesus – Christians are the new sons of God. Rf Gal 6:16
- Humanity will become “divine” - of the supernatural realm (“like Him”) at death / glorification and rule with Christ at his coming. 1John 3 – not sure of our final state?
- This plan to re-institute redeemed humanity to “divine” ruler-ship status will be opposed by the fallen sons of God (Watchers- book of Enoch) and their spiritual leader (Satan) and their own god-man-king (Antichrist)

Summary of “Who are the sons of God”

- ❖ Sons of God are part of God's Divine Family – hierarchy / government
- ❖ Sons of God in OT are small in number, part of a ruling/ judging council under the Creator Yahweh
- ❖ The nations are placed under their governing
- ❖ Many are not just in their ruling and are judged
- ❖ Humans are created to become sons of God and rule angels
- ❖ Adam and Eve fail in their “upbringing” are judged but given mercy and promise of restoration
- ❖ Believers through Christ are adopted into the family of God as sons of God and rule the nations and angels in God's Kingdom

Noah's Ark & the Flood

The Nephilim

Giants

Who were the Nephilim?

Giants

- The Hebrew/Aramaic means giants, not fallen ones

<http://www.sitchiniswrong.com/>

Sitchin assumes "nephilim" comes from the Hebrew word "naphal" which usually means "to fall."

if the word nephilim came from Hebrew naphal, it would not be spelled as we find it.

The form nephilim cannot mean "fallen ones" (the spelling would then be nephulim).

However, in Aramaic the noun naphil(a) does exist. It means "giant," making it easy to see why the Septuagint (the ancient Greek translation of the Hebrew Bible) translated nephilim as gigantes ("giant").

Why the Flood

Genesis 6:3 And the LORD said, My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years.

Remember the context of this sixth chapter of Genesis-- Here God is: 1.) declaring displeasure with man; and 2.) announcing plans to destroy man.

- (Sons of God)- both are judged in the flood

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RHgjGUbFwhE> Genesis 6 -The Sons of God, Daughters of Men, and the Nephilim: Michael Heiser

Why the Flood

Genesis 6:3

The message is not, God will cease striving with men after each one lives (an average of) 120 years . Rather, God plans to call them all down to the grave together, after the expiration of 120 years... by means of a universal flood.

hidden in the very start of the chapter (v. 1,2) are seeds of man's drift into sin-- for it says, the sons of God inter-married with the daughters of men. SOG are imprisoned- humans & nephilim face death. A judgment & rescue of Humanity

- The Bible itself tends to refute any 'lifespan shortened to 120 years' interpretation of Genesis 6:3:
- Men continued to experience centuries-long lifespans: For instance, Noah himself lived to be 950 years at his death; Shem, 600; and Arphaxad, 438.

Gilgamesh Cuneiform tablet

The Flood Tablet

This is perhaps the most famous of all cuneiform tablets. It is the eleventh tablet of the Gilgamesh Epic, and describes how the gods sent a flood to destroy the world. Like Noah, Utnapishtim was forewarned and built an ark to house and preserve living things. After the flood he sent out birds to look for dry land.

Genesis According to the Miao People

by Edgar A. Truax

<http://www.icr.org/article/genesis-according-miao-people/>

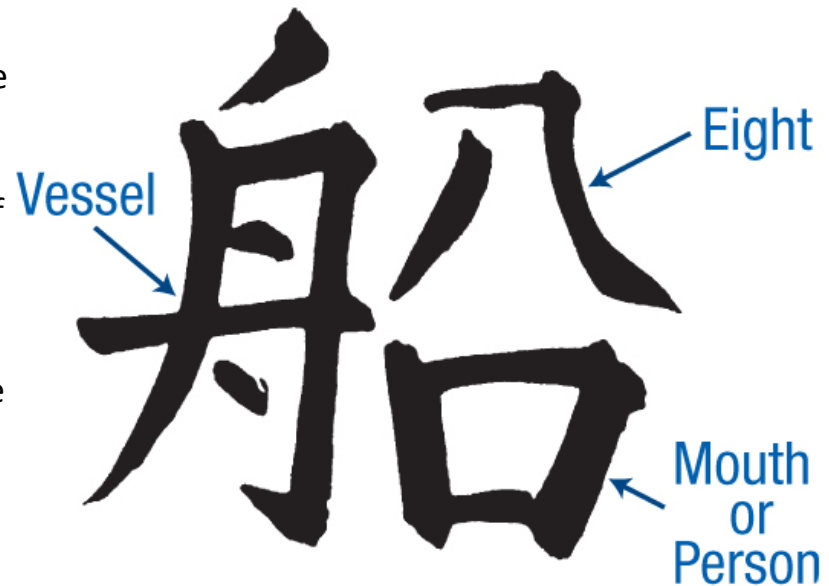

The Miao tribes, or as it is spelled in most encyclopedias "Miautso," at one time occupied most of inland China south of the Yangtze River, but have been gradually driven into the mountains of the southwest by the better-armed and better-organized Chinese. The Miao of our section claim to have been driven out of Kiangsi Province.

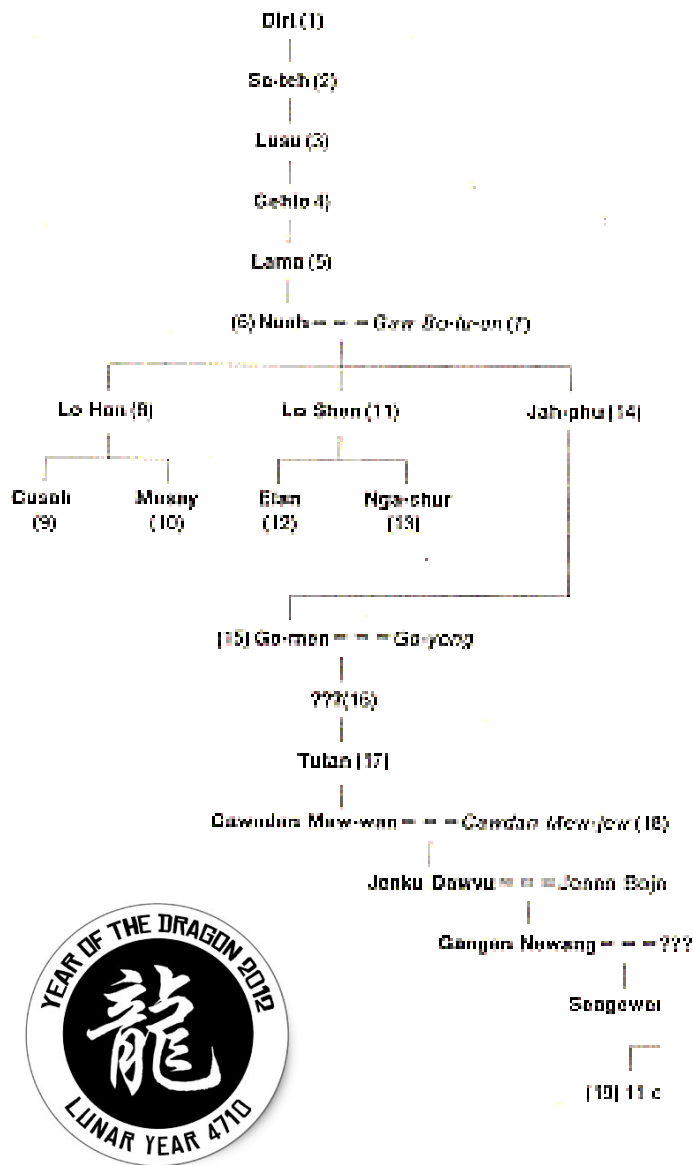

The Miao traditions are very precise, as compared with those of many primitive peoples, because they are not only handed down in metrical form, but, also, they are in couplets, in which the same or similar meaning is expressed in different wording, so that the second sentence acts as a definition of the first, where it might otherwise not be clear. This is very much like one form of Hebrew poetry - an example of which is found in Psalm 21:1,2.

- Notes on the Descent of the Miautso People of China
- Dirt: This is Truax's English rendering of the original name, not a transposition. It is clearly meant to portray Adam, the version of whose name in the Miautso language (as in Hebrew, Akkadian and so on), means earth or clay, the substance from which he was created. 146
 - Se-teh: The Biblical Seth.
 - Lusu: The names in the book of the Generations of Adam (Genesis 5) that immediately follow that of Seth are: Enos, Cainan, Mahalaleel, Jared, Enoch and Methuselah. The name Lusu may conceivably be identified as a corruption of one of the elements of Mahalaleel. Otherwise, it is unidentifiable.
 - Gehlo: A corruption, perhaps, of the final element of Methuselah's name. Otherwise, it is unidentifiable.
 - Lama: The Biblical Lamech.
 - Nuah: Noah. In the Miautso account, Nuah was a righteous man who was commanded by God to build a great ark. The release of the dove from the ark is mentioned amidst a graphic and somewhat horrifying depiction of the Flood itself and the eventual drying out of the land.
 - Gaw Bo-lu-en: Apart from certain Jewish traditions, this is an interesting and rare naming of Noah's wife. Genesis, of course, does not give her name.
 - Lo Han: The Biblical Ham. The descent of the following identifiable patriarchs is given along with a graphic account of Babel and the confusion of tongues. It is then told how the nations spread out from Babel and encircled the globe. This is a surprising preservation of ancient knowledge, for the Miautso, at the time

The Genealogy of the early British Kings

The following genealogy shows the descent of the early British kings as it was traced down from Japheth, the son of Noah.

The sources for this are Nennius 17 and 18 (see Appendix 5), covering from Japheth to Brutus; and Geoffrey of Monmouth who carries the story on from Anchises. To gain an idea of the time-scale involved, I have included the dates of each king's first year of reign as far as that can be calculated from internal and external sources. The Welsh chronicle agrees with Geoffrey of Monmouth almost exactly, although the names are obviously closer in the Welsh to the original early British forms than they are in Geoffrey. For ease, I have used here Geoffrey's latinised forms.

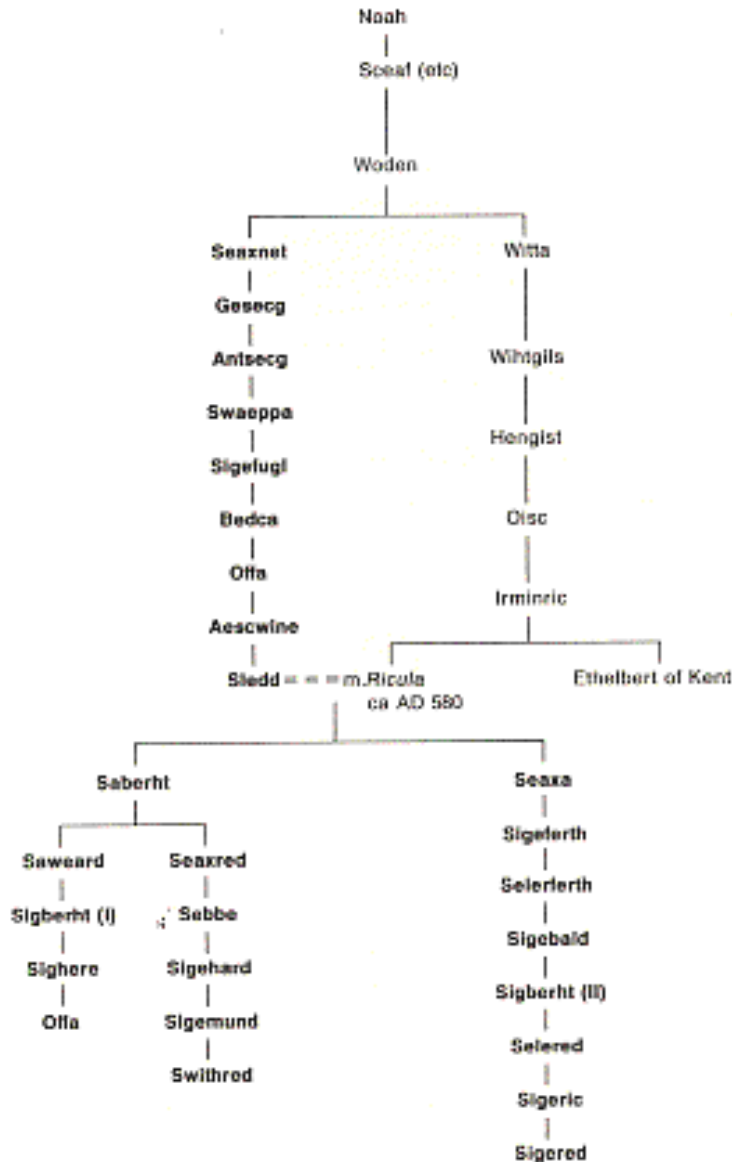

The Descent of the East Saxon Kings

(from whom the English county of Essex derives its name)

The genealogy of the East Saxon kings (from whom the English county of Essex derives its name) was discovered comparatively recently.

It was being used as part of the binding of an old book. However, it was happily retrieved and published by Sweet in The Earliest English Texts. (Oxford Univ. Press. 1885. p. 179).

In the original document the genealogy is set out as follows, the letters appearing here in parentheses belonging to those small portions of the document that had been cut away when binding the book:

- House of Essex – bold type
- House of Kent – medium type (see chapter 7)

Extra Biblical Genealogies

From Japheth to Brutus

Note

In the above table, I have brought together the genealogies contained in no less than five diverse and ancient sources which show the descent of certain early patriarchs. Three of those sources begin with the same original, namely Japheth, otherwise remembered as Jupiter amongst the ancient and pagan Latin races, thus demonstrating beyond any reasonable doubt that Japheth was synonymous with Jupiter. And two of them end with Brutus, the eponymous founder of the early Britons.

All of the sources differ from one another in many and various points, which rules out inter-dependency or copying.

However, they also agree on many independent points, which demonstrates the historicity of the patriarchs listed. If it were at all possible to cite a comparable case where such ancient patriarchs are commonly listed amongst such diverse and independent sources, there can be little doubt that their historicity would be accepted without question amongst modern scholars. After all, the historicity of many other characters from the ancient world is accepted on much less evidence than this. Indeed, their historicity is accepted, more often than not, merely upon the single appearance of a name, without any other corroborative evidence being required. And yet the above genealogies that present the historian with such uniquely comprehensive and corroborative evidence are commonly listed as myth and fable. Perhaps the reason for this is better pondered upon than stated.

About the Author

Walt Brown received a Ph.D. in mechanical engineering from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), where he was a National Science Foundation Fellow. He has taught college courses in physics, mathematics, and computer science. Brown is a retired Air Force full colonel, West Point graduate, and former Army Ranger and paratrooper. Assignments during his 21 years of military service included: Director of Benét Laboratories (a major research, development, and engineering facility); tenured associate professor at the U.S. Air Force Academy; and Chief of Science and Technology Studies at the Air War College. For much of his life Walt Brown was an evolutionist, but after years of study, he became convinced of the scientific validity of creation and a global flood. Since retiring from the military, Dr. Brown has been the Director of the Center for Scientific Creation and has worked full time in research, writing, and teaching on creation and the flood.

For those who wish to know more about Walt Brown, a new book (Christian Men of Science: Eleven Men Who Changed the World by George Mulfinger and Julia Mulfinger Orozco) devotes a chapter to Brown. It may be read by clicking here.

Water Earth

Mt. Everest was once covered with water and uplifted afterward.¹³ If we even out the ocean basins and flatten out the mountains, there is enough water to cover the entire earth by about 1.7 miles (2.7 km).¹⁴ Also important to note is that, with the leveling out of the oceans and mountains, the Ark would not have been riding at the height of the current Mt. Everest, thus no need for such things as oxygen masks either.

Water saturated sedimentary rock

For centuries after the flood, water drained out of mountains and cliffs.

Caves were carved by outward flowing water. New inhabitants to an area sought out and settled around these plentiful sources of water. (Thus, many ancient cultures believed that water originated in mountains and flowed out of caves.)²⁸ Years later, as water sources dwindled, communities were forced to leave.

Prosperous cultures, such as the Anasazi and cliff-dwellers, suddenly disappeared from an area, causing anthropologists to wonder if disease, war, famine, or drought destroyed those ancient communities. No; their water simply dried up.

I believe mutation can corrupt information, scramble information, and change it horizontally, but that it is utterly unable to account for the changes necessary for long-term evolution. Also, evidence is accumulating for the existence of genetic algorithms designed to facilitate changes to the DNA sequence. Dr. Peter Borger has coined the term “variation inducing genetic elements” \(VIGEs\) and we happily incorporate them into the creation model. Since these changes would be caused by pre-programmed genetic modules, it is hard to call these changes “mutations”. The HLA genes in particular, as a vital part of the immune system, are pre-programmed to scramble, so using them as proof for your beliefs is an error on your part.

The ancients of Egypt, Canaan, and Atlantis, were measuring and mapping the globe during the Ice Age, when there was much more rainfall in the Middle Eastern and North African regions, and then the sea level rose by a few hundred feet because of the end of the Ice Age, causing the submergence of coastal megalithic city-states now found off Egypt, Lebanon, Malta, southern Spain (Atlantis), southern Japan, and off northwestern and southern India.

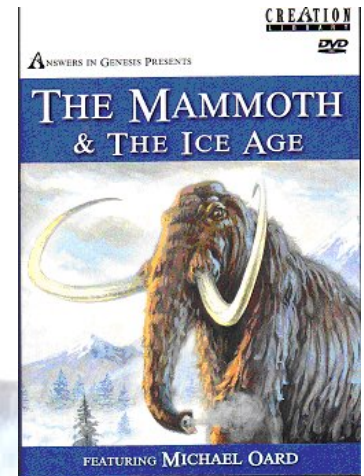

The Ice Age navigators were able to measure and thereby map the globe, as evidenced with the astronomically-derived dimensions of the Great Pyramid of Giza, which demonstrates that the ancients measured the rate of the slow wobble of the earth's axis against the backdrop of the constellations of the zodiac, and maps by the ancient sea kings reveal that the Ice Age navigators did accurately measure and chart the globe, with marvelous accuracy, so experience this paradigm-shifting account of ancient history by ordering the book and/or DVD through this website.

The new book and DVD production by James I. Nienhuis, about the development of the post-Deluge civilization, is a fascinating look at a subject which has been dealt with very little in our times. I am sure most would find it very fascinating.

Oard examines the physical evidence, scrutinizes the secular theories, and shows how only the Bible explains the Ice Age. 63 minutes

See the startling evidence for complex civilizations before during and after the Ice Age. The ruins of submerged ancient city-states have been discovered on the shallow sea floor in various parts of the world.

Dr. Michael Oard. What killed the woolly mammoth? Why do we find specimens all over Siberia? How did these hairy elephants survive such a hostile environment? You'll be captivated as scientist Mike Oard solves this baffling mystery of the Ice Age.

Research conducted by Dr. Larry Vardiman and his students at ICR show that the ice age can be explained by hot oceans and cold continents after the Flood creating heavy snow in polar and mountainous regions.

The New World

A restoration to what?

If you believe in NP Evolution there is no restoration, just the hope that in the future Humanity will survive and evolve

If you are a Theistic Evolutionest than restoration by God is possible, but will pretty much look like life today, as it is a restoration to a world full of death, mutation / disease, survial of the fittest – natural selection and chance, somewhat guided

A restoration to what?

If you believe Supernatural Creation and thus a Perfect – purposeful, harmonious creation separated by Human choice and degenerating to death, then restoration means a new heavens, earth, animals & humanity - immortality, restored abilities, restored relationships, death defeated, and a universe in which the story of God expands forever

New Heavens & New Earth
